Give a brief description of your company:	Clayton Hotel is 1 of 57 hotels across the UK, Ireland and Europe. We are owned by Dalata hotel group, but a fully de centralised model, so all of our hotels are managed locally, on site. The Clayton Hotel Bristol City has 255 bedrooms, making us the third largest hotel in Bristol. We were refurbished from an old Print Works which ran from 1901 to the mid 1950s.
Why do you want to join BJC?	I'm really interested in meeting new businesses, and getting to know likeminded individuals and hopefully expanding my network.
What are your social and leisure Interests?	I'm a very active person and like to spend a lot of time outside. Tennis and cycling are a passion of mine.
Are you a member of any other organisations? If so, what are	N/A your responsibilities within them?

How did you hear about BJC? (If possible, please give the name or event)	I attended a Chamber of Commerce networking event at Harvey Nichols and met Kathryn Binnie who then came to the hotel for a showround. She gave me the details on how to join.

Important

The Bristol Junior Chamber is a company limited by guarantee. By returning this form and proceeding with your application you:

- undertake to be bound by the memorandum and articles of association of the BJC;
- request that you be entered into the register of members;
- give your consent for your application form and photograph to be shared with the membership;
- give consent to be entered onto our mailing list to receive the BJC weekly email.

The articles or association state that your application to become a member must be approved by the Council of Management before you can be entered into the register of members. We shall be in contact as soon as this process has been completed.

A copy of the memorandum and articles of association is available on request.

Full details of our privacy notice, which sets out how we process your personal information, can be found by accessing the Bristol Junior Chamber website or by asking for a copy, which is available on request. Please note, this includes details of how you can change your marketing preferences and unsubscribing from the weekly email (which always includes an unsubscribe function).

The Bristol Junior Chamber is a not-for-profit organisation and its income is derived from its membership fees, tickets for certain events and its activities. Any surplus from our activities is re-invested into the Chamber or donated to our charity fund held by Quartet.

The fees for the current financial year are:

- £49.50 joining fee (a one-off payment upon joining);
- £170 annual membership fee (running from 1 April each year);
This fee can be reduced on a pro rata basis depending on when you join in the year. Invoices are normally issued in April.
- Please note that we are not VAT registered.
